

2018 Arts Alive in Agriculture Eligibility and Guidelines:

ELIGIBILITY:

Open to all artist who reside in the Central Valley 18 years or older.

CATAGORIES OF ENTRIES INCLUDE:

1. The Human Component of Agriculture
2. Technology and Machinery of Agriculture
3. Agricultural Landscapes.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

MEDIA: Art media in painting, sculpture, photography and found objects may be submitted in any and all categories.

RULES OF ENTRY:

Works submitted must have been completed in the last two years, cannot be a copy.

Photographic images: no combined or merged images, no manipulation of content will be accepted.

Artwork: must be submitted dry, framed, securely wired and ready to hang, acrylic rather than glass for covering work is preferred, framing must be simple and not heavy.

3D Pieces: must be at least 8 inches in any direction (for safety purposes)

No accepted works can be removed before the completion of the show.

Works must be available for purchase with 30% commission on all sales.

Additionally, submission of a brief artists bio (100 words or less), and a FAC release of liability form will need to be signed at this time.

SUBMISSION OF ONLINE DIGITAL IMAGE GUIDELINES:

JPG format:

compression quality: medium, Sized to 1280 pixels, no larger then 2mb.

Resolution: 72 dpi

File name consists of: your name, underscore, first name, underscore and title of work.

(Ex: Smith_Art_The Flight)

ENTRY FEE: $30.00, 2 works $40.00, 3 works $50.00

PANEL OF JURORS:

Jurors of the 2018 Spring Arts Alive in Agriculture show will be conducted by qualified artists and patrons in the field of agriculture and the arts.

QUESTIONS OR ADDED INFORMATION:

Contact: Lilia Gonzales Chavez or Jenny Martinez at Fresno Arts Council 559-237-9734 or visit www.fresnoartscouncil.org